FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

zCover announces the new iSA micro5G leather case for Apple's iPod nano 5th Generation

RICHMOND, BC, CANADA – September 10, 2009

zCover will be releasing the iSA micro5G leather case for the new iPod nano 5G. The iSA micro5G leather case will incorporate the functional, stylish design of the popular iSA micro4G and introduce smart enhancements for the nano 5G's new features, which include a video camera, an FM radio, a pedometer, microphone and speaker.

zCover's iSA micro5G leather case features two security wallet snaps. The headphone port can be accessed with both outer and inner security snaps closed. Open the outer security snap and flip the cover of the leather case for full access to iPod nano 5G. The inner security snap, when closed, keeps the nano locked in the case. Open the inner security snap for access to the charging port and the nano can be removed from the case.

The iSA micro5G leather case will soon be available at leading retail outlets. The case will be available in black and will sell for $34.99 USD. It will be sold in an environmentally friendly, hard plastic box that compliments the nano 5G packaging for an ideal gift combination. And the plastic retail box is re-useable as a portable, accessories container.

All zCover products and packaging are made with recyclable materials to reduce paper usage and save trees.

Additional iSA micro5G cases, accessories and combinations are available online at www.zcover.com.
