Adobe Photoshop short-cut keyboard cover continues the mould of zCover zCover Inc, the leading manufacturer of fashionable silicone protective cases, has announced today the release of their Adobe Photoshop Short cut program Keyboard cover.

Design for apple, the Photoshop keyboard cover transforms a standard Apple keyboard into a fully functional specific Photoshop editing keyboard. Armed with the ability to illustrate all the short-cuts of learned Photoshop professional, the cover also provides quality protection to the keyboard from dust, spills, staples and many other contaminants that could cause serious damage. Adding ease and convenience the cover is so versatile and robust it can be machine washed.

With precision moulding and a high know-how printing process known to zCover as zPrinting, durability and ability of the cover becomes unquestioned. The cover does not slip or slide and fits as such it belongs fitting every contour of the Mac keyboard. The printing does not peel or fade and the high quality silicone is unable to rip or tear.

“It took us years to develop printing technology for our silicone covers. zPrinting is one of our key business.” said Sean Sa, vice president of zCover Inc. “The editors can now use the zPrinting covers with the best value for their money. The printings are blended to our moulding by our specially designed technique giving the labels their permanence. Being extraordinary durable and a perfect fit they win lasting affection and loyalty”

The zCover Photoshop cover is set to mould itself to novice and professional editors alike.
